Subject: Celebrating 70 Years of the Liberation of the Netherlands

On behalf of the University of New Brunswick I would like to invite you to attend an upcoming event at UNB Fredericton to remember a time that had a profound impact on our country's history and the history of our allies in the Netherlands. From Memory to Remembrance: 70 Years of Liberation of the Netherlands will take place on Wednesday, April 1, at 7 p.m. at the Richard J. CURRIE CENTER, UNB Fredericton. (see invitation here) As an industry who has the potential to do business in the Netherlands, this is a golden opportunity for you to better understand the Dutch history, culture and its relationship with Canada.

Canadian troops played a pivotal role in liberating the Netherlands seventy years ago. Many of our Canadian troops were Maritimers including dozens of individuals who were either UNB students, alumni or future students. UNB is one of three Canadian stops for this lecture series in which Canadian and Dutch historians take us through the Canadian military campaign that led to the capitulation in Wageningen on May 5, 1945. UNB has been chosen to host this prestigious event because of the great work being done by UNB's own Milton F. Gregg Centre for the study of War and Society.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. and a reception will follow. This is a free, public talk, so please feel free to share the attached poster.

We ask that anyone interested in attending RSVP to Valerie Gallant.

I hope to see some of you at the CURRIE CENTER on April 1.

Best wishes,

Bob
